

Literature Circle Planner

A literature circle is a group reading the same text. When they meet, they discuss the part of the text and help each other gain deeper meaning. Ideally, all group members will have the reading done ahead of time. In our situation, we are asking you to use your high-level skills of skimming for meaning, and your current expertise in the field.

Use this form to take notes during the experience.

Title of Text:

Names of Participants and Roles:

[illegible]

Notes: Use this space to note questions, vocabulary, points of interest, etc.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on the right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.